APPLICATION COMPONENTS AND ELIGIBILITY

Application Components

When completed, your application should consist of the following items and be placed in the following order:

For further instructions on application components please refer to page 6.

- application form, with all required signatures
- résumé
- internship request statement
- issues essay
- two letters of recommendation (a third is required if GPA is less than 2.75; see eligibility requirements below)
- transcript
- Application fee. You will receive a full refund of the application fee if you meet the minimum requirements (including 2.75 minimum GPA) and submit a complete, on-time application but are not accepted. Otherwise the fee is non-refundable.

Application fee is $60 for students attending schools in the United States, $125 for international students attending schools overseas.

Applicants to our Postgraduate Professional Development Program pay a $250 non-refundable deposit at the time of application (in lieu of an application fee). The deposit will be refunded if you are not accepted into the program.

Secure the application and supporting documents with one paperclip. Do not use any staples.

General Eligibility Requirements

If you are applying to any program, except the Postgraduate Professional Development Program (PPDP), you must:

- Be enrolled in an accredited college or university as a second semester sophomore or above during the term of your internship.
- Maintain a Grade Point Average (GPA) of at least 2.75 on a 4.0 scale. If your GPA is below 2.75 your application MAY be considered with a third recommendation letter. Applicants with GPA's lower than 2.75 are encouraged to apply early. Applicants to our Sophomore Exploration Program must have a GPA of at least 3.25. The application refund policy noted above does not apply even if a third letter is submitted. Placement requirements and deadlines may change on short notice. Higher GPAs (minimum 3.0) may be required for placement sites such as the U.S. Departments of Justice and State, the U.S. Attorney's Office, and the Cable News Network (CNN).

- Receive academic credit from your college or university for your participation in the internship program. The Washington Center (TWC) does not grant academic credit.*
- Receive the endorsement of your campus liaison or of a faculty sponsor if your campus does not have a campus liaison. All applications need the endorsement of the sponsoring home institutions.*

*Exceptions may apply for international students attending schools outside the U.S. Email internationalinfo@twc.edu for additional information.

Postgraduate Professional Development Program (PPDP) Eligibility

PPDP students must have received their most recent college degree within 18 months of the start of the program, or be enrolled in graduate school, and must have maintained a GPA of at least 2.75.

The program is designed for participants not receiving credit. Participants may independently arrange for credit through their home institution.

International Students' Additional Eligibility Requirements

International applicants who are not applying through a U.S. accredited institution must meet the same requirements as U.S. citizens, plus the following 7 additional requirements:

1. Passport: Provide a copy of the first page of passport.
2. TOEFL: Applicants must present a valid TOEFL score equivalent to 550 on the paper-based scale.
3. J-1 Visa: Foreign nationals who wish to enter the U.S. to participate in TWC training programs come under a J-1 Visa. To qualify for the J-1 Visa, you must:
  - Have two years of education or work experience in a field related to the training.
  - Know English well enough to perform successfully in the proposed position.
  - Plan to leave the U.S. within 30 days after completion of the program.
  - Have not held the J-1 Visa in the Trainee category previously.

To apply for the J-1 Visa you must:

- Submit the complete TWC application before the deadline.

- Once accepted, pay one half of the cost of the program. TWC will send you the DS-2019 and the DS-7002 forms with the acceptance letter.
- Pay the U.S. Department of State SEVIS fee.
- Make an appointment at the local U.S. Consulate in your country.
- At the appointment, submit the DS-2019 and the DS-7002 forms along with your other required materials to obtain your J-1 Visa.

We cannot guarantee that a U.S. consulate will issue you the J-1 Visa.

4. Health Insurance: All applicants must be covered by an insurance plan that satisfies the requirements of the U.S. Department of State for the duration of the training program. Once you are accepted, you will receive more information on how to comply with this requirement.

5. Financial Support: The U.S. Department of State requires that all international applicants demonstrate they have funds to cover the cost of the program. In order to ensure that you have sufficient funds, you must pay one half of the cost as soon as you agree to participate in the program. You must also present a copy of a financial statement showing enough funds to cover the expenses associated with the program and a copy of a valid credit card that would only be used in case of payment default. Payment of the remaining 50% is due prior to check-in.

6. Home Country Presence Requirements: Some participants are required to spend two years in their home country before they are allowed to apply for another U.S. Visa. This requirement applies if:

- Participation in the program was financed by the U.S. or a foreign government.
- The skills that you are going to develop are listed as "special" in the State Department skills list.

A waiver procedure exists in certain cases.

7. Application Fee: All international applicants are required to pay a $125.00 application fee. This includes one FedEx delivery of your J-1 Visa form. For more information contact The Washington Center at internationalinfo@twc.edu.

The Washington Center actively strives for equal access to its programs for all regardless of race, religion, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, age, physical challenge or veteran status. All Washington Center programs attempt to include a diversity of students in order to enhance the educational experience for all participants.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

College or University Awarding Credit: Please identify the college or university that will be awarding you credit. This may differ from the college or university you currently attend if you are unable to obtain credit through your home institution. Postgraduate applicants should enter the name of institution that they currently attend or that awarded their degree.

Home Institution (if applicable): Enter the name of your home institution if different from institution awarding credit for your participation.

Early Deadline for Selected Agencies:

The Washington Center encourages students to apply early in order to access the widest possible range of placement sites. Each site has an internal timeline for selecting interns. Some of these fall months ahead of our regular deadline. Some sites need to issue security clearances after an offer is made to and accepted by a student. Others request an additional application.

At www.twc.edu/students/earlydeadlines.shtml, we have posted a list of internship sites that require early submission. Also posted are the dates by which students should send their complete applications (with all supporting documents) to The Washington Center. The list includes only a small minority of the agencies at which accepted students may intern. The date noted under "Early Deadlines Begin" on page 8 is the date by which your application is due in order to be considered for the full range of placements listed below.

Early-deadline agencies include (subject to change):

- U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia
- U.S. Department of Defense
- U.S. Department of Justice
- U.S. Department of State
- Naval Criminal Investigative Service
- U.S. Marshals Service
- U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration
- U.S. Department of Homeland Security
- Interpol
- The White House
- U.S. Congressional Offices (summer term)*
- CNN*
- U.S. Environmental Protection Agency*

Placements at the agencies noted above are generally available only to degree-seeking students and some require an additional application form. Not all early-deadline agencies are available to quarter students.

By meeting the early deadline for and indicating your interest in certain internships, you are requesting that your application be sent to those agencies for consideration. You are not applying for a security clearance. A clearance will be opened by, and will be the responsibility of the agency, only after you are offered and accept an internship.

* Background investigation not conducted but early deadline required.

Competitive Deadline: Early Consideration for Financial Assistance Awards

Students seeking to be considered for the below-listed awards or initiatives should submit their application by the Competitive Deadline:

- Diversity Leaders Award (must be U.S. citizen or permanent resident)
- Civic Engagement Award
- International Leaders Award
- Association of College Honor Societies Scholarship (also available to Postgraduate Program applicants)
- National Collegiate Honors Council Scholarship
- American Indian/Alaska Native Initiative

If the competitive deadline has passed, please contact us at info@twc.edu to ask if we can still accept your application. Depending upon the timing, and the type of placement or award you seek, we may be able to accommodate you.

For more information, please review the financial assistance section on pages 24-27 of our Program Guide or visit our website at http://www.twc.edu/students/financial\_assistance.shtml

Program and Areas of Interest Section

Internship Area Selection: In order to direct your application to the appropriate staff member and to facilitate the placement process, indicate your placement interest areas by selecting three choices from among those found on the application form. Number your selections 1, 2, and 3, indicating ONLY your 1st, 2nd and 3rd choices.

Program Selection: When students are accepted by The Washington Center, they are assigned, according to their interests and eligibility, to a program. To learn more about each program, including additional eligibility requirements, types of internships available, availability of financial assistance and whether a specific course is required for the program, please refer to pages 6-12 of our Program Guide or visit our website at <http://www.twc.edu>.

From among those programs listed on the application, please select your FIRST, SECOND AND THIRD CHOICES ONLY. The Washington Center may assign you to a program other than the one selected if circumstances warrant.

- Undergraduate students are not eligible for our Postgraduate Professional Development Program.
- Programs are offered each semester and quarter unless otherwise specified.
- Graduate students who would like to participate in our program for credit facilitated by The Washington Center can select from among all programs except our Postgraduate Professional Development Program. In this case a liaison/sponsor signature is required.

Campus Liaison/Sponsor Agreement

Campus Sponsor Agreement (Not Required for the Postgraduate Professional Development Program or for students attending schools outside the U.S.) This portion of the application form must be completed and signed by the individual on your campus designated as the campus liaison. If you are unsure of the identity of this person, please contact The Washington Center at info@twc.edu or call us at 1-800-486-8921.

If your campus is not affiliated with The Washington Center, you may obtain the signature of a faculty or staff member (dean, head of a department, faculty member, career services administrator) who can help arrange for you to receive credit.

If you are unable to secure the proper signature, please contact our Institutional Relations department at info@twc.edu or 1-800-486-8921 so that we may assist you.

ADDITIONAL APPLICATION COMPONENTS

Recommendation Letters

Two letters of recommendation are required. At least one of these letters must be from a faculty member (neither should be from a family member or friend). A third letter is required for students whose GPA falls below 2.75.

Letters may be given to the student, in a sealed envelope, to forward to The Washington Center, or the recommender may send the letters directly to The Washington Center.

Issues Essay*

In approximately 500 words (typed, double spaced, on 8.5 x 11 paper with your name and institution at the top of each page), discuss one issue related to the field in which you wish to work. Some suggestions for writing your issues essay:

- Conduct a web search among major news organization sites to find out about new and recent controversies in your field of interest.
- Ask your faculty advisor to identify developing issues in the field.
- Do not try to write a research paper. Simply demonstrate that you have a serious interest and some background knowledge about issues that are important in your field. Your essay will be shared with prospective internship sites. Please take the time to ensure your essay is well written, organized, and contains no typographical errors.

Internship Request Statement*

In approximately 100 words (typed, double-spaced, on 8.5" x 11" paper, with your name and institution at the top of the page), describe the kinds of activities you would like to be involved with during your internship and how these activities would relate to your career goals. Please do not specify the name(s) of any particular organization as this document will be sent to potential internship sites.

Résumé*

Include a one-page résumé that outlines your educational background, honors or recognitions, work experience, activities, special skills, travel, interests, etc. If you do not have a current résumé, check with your campus career center for advice on format. Please be sure to include any computer-related expertise or foreign language skills, as well as prior internships and community service activities. Applicants for Diversity Leaders Award and Civic Engagement Award should include evidence of leadership on campus and/or in the community.

Transcripts

Please submit an official transcript. The transcript may be sent separately.

* Examples of some of these components can be found at our website <http://www.twc.edu>.

GENERAL POLICIES, PAYMENT POLICY &amp; CANCELLATION POLICIES

Admissions Policy

The review process is comprehensive with admissions decisions based on the strength of each student's application (including the essays, letters of recommendation and other supporting documents) and a determination of whether an appropriate internship can be secured for the applicant. Unless notified of a student's intention to withdraw from our program (or decline admission), The Washington Center assumes that all accepted students plan to participate in our program.

Payment Policy

The Washington Center requires that all invoices be paid in full by the due date noted on your invoice. Students with an outstanding balance may not check into Washington Center housing, or begin their internship unless prior alternative arrangements have been made with The Washington Center's finance office. Email finance at finance@twc.edu or call 202-238-7974 to discuss payment.

Internship Refund and Cancellation Policy

Washington Center staff does extensive work on your behalf prior to your arrival in Washington, D.C. This necessitates a commitment by you to adhere to The Washington Center refund policy. When you sign the policy agreement on your application (page 3), you are making a financial commitment to The Washington Center, and you are indicating that you have read and understand the refund and payment policies.

Financial assistance is contingent on successful completion of the program. Cancellation, dismissal, withdrawal or failure to successfully complete the program voids all forms of financial assistance, and any financial assistance provided to the student plus any outstanding fees are due and payable to TWC.

The Washington Center grants refunds and/or will assess a charge for program fees under certain circumstances as specified in Table A. The initial application fee is not refundable, but may be applied to another program within one year of the original application.

- All requests for refunds must be submitted in writing. A request for a program fee refund should be submitted to the Director of Internships.
- TWC will not release grades for any student with an outstanding balance.
- All interns are governed by the Student Code of Conduct. Students dismissed from the program (and thus from the housing facilities) after due process procedures have been followed receive no refund for either program or housing.

Housing Refund and Cancellation Policy

Upon acceptance to The Washington Center, you will be given information about submitting a Housing Reservation Contract. This contract must be submitted along with your $300 Housing Security Deposit six (6) weeks prior to your scheduled check-in date. The deposit will hold your space in housing. Once the contract has been submitted, the Housing Security Deposit will be forfeited if you cancel your housing. Additional fees may be assessed as outlined in Table B.

If a student's financial assistance requires that he/she live in TWC housing, cancellation of housing will result in a loss of that assistance and the student's bill will be adjusted accordingly. To cancel your housing reservation, you must submit notification, in writing, to housing@twc.edu. No cancellations will be taken by phone or in person by a member of TWC staff. The Washington Center does grant partial refunds on housing under certain circumstances as specified in Table B.

Housing and Student Life Policies

If you choose to live in The Washington Center housing during your internship, you must abide by the policies in the Housing Reservation Contract, Student Code of Conduct and the following rules and regulations:

- All students are required to have health insurance and provide proof of insurance upon request.
- The Washington Center is not responsible for any loss, theft or damage to your personal property. Insuring your valuables is recommended.
- No pets are allowed in Washington Center housing facilities, with the exception of service animals used for official purposes.
- Smoking is not allowed in Washington Center housing facilities.
- The Washington Center reserves the right to change student accommodations at any time. To consolidate vacant spaces, students may be required to relocate to another apartment or housing facility.
- The Washington Center reserves the right to remove any student or guest from our housing facilities; students whose conduct is considered disruptive, harmful or potentially harmful to others or themselves, may be removed from the program immediately.
- If a student's financial assistance requires that he/she live in Washington Center housing, removal from said housing will result in a loss of financial assistance and the appropriate amount will be added to the student's bill.
- Each intern, regardless of scholarship, is required to provide a check or credit card imprint for a Housing Security Deposit of $300 with their Housing Reservation Contract. A final charge amount will be determined after all charges are received from building management. This determination will not be made until at least 10 weeks after departure.

INTERNSHIP REFUND & CANCELLATION POLICY

Table A

If you notify TWC of Cancellation	Refund/Charge
Between your acceptance into the program and prior to your internship placement confirmation	100% of program fee refunded
After confirmation of internship placement either orally, in writing or via e-mail, but prior to check-in.	50% of program fee refunded or 50% due and payable to TWC
On or after check-in	100% program fee due and payable to TWC. No refund.

HOUSING REFUND & CANCELLATION POLICY

Table B

If you notify TWC of Cancellation	Refund/Charge
14 or more days prior to check-in	Forfeiture of $300 Housing Security Deposit. Remainder of housing fee refunded.
Fewer than 14 days before check-in	Forfeiture of $300 Housing Security Deposit and additional $500 cancellation fee. Remainder of housing fee refunded.
On or after check-in	100% housing fee due and payable to TWC. No refund.

Internship Policies

- The application form, plus the supporting documents provided, become the property of The Washington Center and will be shown to potential internship sites. The materials will not be returned or transferred to other institutions or potential employers.
- The program fee (and housing fee if applicable) will be payable to The Washington Center by the due date that will be noted on the invoice. The Washington Center reserves the right to assess a finance charge on overdue accounts.
- All students are required to have health insurance and provide proof of insurance upon request.
- Students are responsible for any and all medical expenses that may be incurred, either personally or through insurance coverage.
- By signing the application, a student certifies that he or she has completed this application and that the information contained in it (including the resume and other supporting documents) is accurate. Misrepresentation of information contained in the application and supporting documents may result in denial of acceptance, revocation of acceptance, or removal from the program. Information is subject to verification.

Postgraduate Program Deposit Policy

Because The Washington Center does extensive work on their behalf, students applying to the Postgraduate Program are required to pay a $250 non-refundable deposit at the time of application. Applications will not be reviewed until payment is received. The deposit will be put toward the program fee and is refunded if an applicant is not accepted into our program.

Financial Assistance Policy

Financial assistance from The Washington Center is awarded independently from admission and is not need-based. It includes, but is not limited to, any amounts provided by the internship placement directly to the student or to The Washington Center. Financial assistance is generally not available to interns enrolled in our Postgraduate Professional Development Program.

In order to be considered for assistance, you must (1) live in Washington Center-provided housing (unless such assistance is through American Indian/Alaska Native Initiative and (2) successfully complete your Washington Center program (all work must be awarded a grade of C or higher). If you fail to meet either of these requirements, all financial assistance monies must be returned to The Washington Center, and you will be re-invoiced accordingly.

Some assistance (including Washington Center matches of state scholarships) must be applied toward our housing fees. Such awards are not cumulative. The student receives only the largest such award for which he or she is eligible. Placement-provided assistance, for example, is first used to cover any housing assistance otherwise provided by The Washington Center, and then to cover any balance remaining on the student's bill.

If placement-provided assistance covers the full cost of a student's program and housing and provides a weekly stipend, the student will not be eligible for additional Washington Center scholarships or state scholarships.

For more information contact TWC at info@twc.edu or call us at 800-486-8921.

- Early Deadlines for Selected Agencies: The Washington Center encourages students to apply early, as some agencies have early internal deadlines by which we must refer candidates. Others may require students to complete additional application materials. The date noted above is the earliest your application is due in order to be considered for the full range of early deadline placements. Please visit www.twc.edu/students/earlydeadlines.shtml to view the dates by which complete applications should be submitted to The Washington Center for specific placements. These include (but are not limited to) the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia, U.S. Department of Defense, U.S. Department of Justice, U.S. Department of State, The White House and U.S. Congressional Offices (summer term only). Many agencies listed need to issue security clearances for students who accept an offer.
- Competitive Deadline: Early Consideration for Financial Assistance Awards: Apply by this date if you'd like early consideration for our financial assistance awards, including the Diversity Leaders Award, Civic Engagement Award and Honors Awards (See pages 24-27 of the Program Guide or visit our website at http://www.twc.edu/students/financial\_assistance.shtml for detailed information on these and other awards). If a particular deadline has passed, please call or e-mail The Washington Center at info@twc.edu to see if we can still accept your application. There should, in any case, be many other highly desirable placements available; and you might still be considered for financial assistance.
- Orientation begins on the date shown above. Depending on the specific term, orientation is either one or two days in length. Please check website for more information.
- Non-refundable Application Fee: Application fee for international trainees is $125.00. This includes processing and J-1 Visa FEDEX delivery.
- Program and Housing Costs: Actual costs to the students are usually offset as a result of financial assistance from his or her institution, state, The Washington Center and/or other sources. See pages 24-27 of the Program Guide.
- There is no application fee for the Postgraduate Program. A non-refundable deposit (which is applied toward the program fee) is due at the time of application. The deposit is refunded if applicant is not accepted into the program.
