Dear International students,

Greetings from the Taiwan Foundation for Democracy (TFD).

It is our pleasure to invite you to participate in the 2011 Assembly of Democracy in Asia, which will be held from 22-23 August 2011 in Taipei, Taiwan, on the theme “Democracy and Development: The Global Challenges for Civil Society”.

The Assembly for Democracy in Asia (ADA) is an assembly of democrats, including activists, practitioners, academics, policy makers and funders, who have come together to cooperate in the promotion of democracy.

As the first Assembly for Democracy in Asia ever held, we will focus on 1) the correlation between democracy and development, 2) the co-existence of different forms of democracies in Great Asia region, and 3) the ideal practice of implementing democracy through diversities.

The primary outcome of the 2011 ADA will be a Framework for Action that explores the relationship between economic development and democratization, as well as strengthens global democracy. Other major highlights include keynote speeches prominent scholars and political figures who have made major contributions to the cause of democratization in our region about the current progress and challenges of democracy in Asia.

We earnestly hope you will be able to attend this conference, to both further strengthen our assembly as well as enable your views to be included in the final Framework for Action. The 2011 Assembly of Democracy in Asia promises to be an historic and landmark event. We are all looking forward very much to it and hope that you are too.

The information of the event is as follows:

■ Time: August 22nd-23rd, 2011

■ Venue: Taipei International Convention Center, 1 Hsin-Yi Rd., Sec. 5, Taipei, Taiwan

If you are interested in attending, please send an email to ada@tfd.org.tw with your CV, and we will send you an invitation after a quick review process. The ADA promises to be truly insightful and worthwhile. We sincerely look forward to hearing from you.
